French Creek Ranch is a beautiful bed and breakfast ranch for horses, riders, hikers, bicyclists or anyone looking for sophisticated, yet comfortable, western hospitality in the heart of the Black Hills of South Dakota.

Located just 1.5 miles from Custer State Park and 2.1 miles east of the city of Custer, French Creek Ranch offers quiet seclusion yet easy access to the many wonders of the Black Hills. The ranch sits in a high mountain meadow with French Creek running through it overlooking the awesome views of the nearby Needles formation.

French Creek Ranch's horse stabling is nearly as nice as our human accommodations. The Ranch has nine large barn box stalls, outdoor runs, and four large fenced corrals. Feed, bedding, tack and other services are available. Horses may be boarded for an additional fee.

French Creek Ranch has limited trailer hookups for those towing horses. Sites are level with electricity and water. A dump station is conveniently located. With advance notice and an additional fee, guests can also enjoy a full breakfast in the Ranch's main dining room.
